

Directions to Raleigh SeniorNet Learning Center

Raleigh SeniorNet is proud to announce with the September 2011 class session we will have all classes and seminars at the new Marsh Creek Community Center located in Marsh Creek Park, 3050 New Hope Road.

This beautiful new center provides a nice large computer room and classrooms for all our events greatly adding to Raleigh SeniorNet's ability to provide the best computer training option for seniors.

Directions to the Marsh Creek Community Center

The Marsh Creek Community Center is located in the back part of Marsh Creek Park. There is one main road that runs through the park and there are directional sign guiding you to the Community Center. The Park is located at 3050 New Hope Rd. Following are maps and directions to Marsh Creek Park.

From North Raleigh: Millbrook Rd crosses Capital Blvd and becomes New Hope Rd. Stay on New Hope as it crosses Louisburg Rd and Buffalo Rd. On your left you will pass Trinity Presbyterian Church. Just before Marsh Creek Rd stoplight, use the center turn lane at the green city park sign and turn left into Marsh Creek Park.

From South / East Raleigh: From New Bern Av turn North on New Hope Rd going pass the Skycrest Dr. intersection. Marsh Creek Rd will dead end on your right. Just after the Marsh Creek Rd. stoplight take the second right turn into Marsh Creek Park. Turn at the green city park marker.
